

Character Creation Cards

Story Question

In one sentence, write what your character is trying to accomplish, and who is in their way

Your Character's Name

Physical Description and Props

Describe (or draw) what your character looks like and give them objects that will help the reader remember them

Pro Tip!

The more descriptions and personality traits you give your characters, the easier it will be to remember them

Exaggerated Personality Traits

Describe what sets this character apart (i.e Super Sassy, Karate Master, Angry, etc.)

Character Introduction

In two or three sentences, write what your character will be doing when the reader first meets them.

Remember to highlight their traits and props in their intro!

Do you like designing characters? Check out joshuamchenrymiller.com to compete in creating a villain for his next book!